TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3

12:15-1:00PM

The Lancaster Players are thrilled to announce an upcoming trip to Dublin, Ireland, in July of 2025. They will have the honor of performing Samuel Beckett's seminal work, "Waiting for Godot," at the historic Ardgillan Castle. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to tread the boards in a venue steeped in history, bringing to life a play that has captivated audiences for generations. We invite all interested students to attend our interest meeting, where we will discuss the details of the trip, the audition process, and the enriching cultural experiences that await us in Ireland. Don't miss out on the chance to be part of this extraordinary theatrical adventure! (Food will be provided!!!)
